

HISTORY OF WARRENSBURG FIRE COMPANY

On April 21, 1921 the burning of the Warren House provided an inspiration for the organization of an efficient Fire Company to protect property in the Town of Warrensburg.

On May 6, 1921 a public meeting recommended a new Fire Company should be organized. This was done at a meeting held at the Parish Rooms on June 21, 1921 with Commissioner G.W. Dickinson presiding. Fifteen private citizens and members of the Town Board constituted the first members of the Warrensburg Fire Co., No. 1. The equipment consisted of the Hose Reels and nine Fire Hydrants available for use with limited water supply. There were also two Chemical Carts. Shortly after the organization of the Fire Company, William Ticknor assumed the position of Fire Chief, after William Condon moved out of town. He held the office continuously until his resignation from the Fire Company in 1936.

In 1922 a Ford truck chassis was purchased and Chief Ticknor and members of the Company built it into a Chemical and Hose Cart, using the tank from one of the old hand-drawn Chemical Carts. A barn at the rear of the Fairland Theater was rented to store the equipment in and later purchased and remodeled by the members to provide a meeting place.

April 22, 1925: A 400 gallon American LaFrance Pumper was delivered to celebrate the Fourth anniversary of the Fire Company. The first call for the new truck was a grass fire on April 30th.

June 5, 1926: A Field Day was held at the Davis Grove to celebrate the Fifth anniversary of the Fire Company. A picture was taken and will be hung on the firehouse wall.

September 9, 1926: The first big fire to hit downtown. It destroyed nine buildings causing a $100,000 worth of damage. No water was available from the hydrant system.

October 1, 1926: Ten black and white helmets were ordered. A petition was circulated and presented to the Town Board with 300 signatures, stating that the Town Board should provide Warrensburg with an adequate water supply.

November 5, 1926: It was announced that Harrington Pond at the north end of the Village has been purchased for a reservoir.

February 9, 1927: A second big fire hit downtown causing $250,000 worth of damage to seven apartments within a half hour. Several members of the Company set speed records driving from a basketball in Corinth to return to duty.

March 31, 1927: It was announced that property owners have been assigned the formation of a Water District with a petition covering $629,870 or 51% of the assessed valuation of the District.

February 1, 1929: A resolution was passed to ask the State Legislature to raise the allowance for Fire Districts from $1,000 to $2,000. The Bill became Law on April 15, 1929, fixing the expenditures at $2,000 on each million dollars of assessed valuation. Taxpayers voted to purchase a lot from Charles Burhans, which is the site of the present firehouse.

May 2, 1929: A special election was held on a proposition to spend $12,000 to build a new firehouse.

October 1, 1930: Standardization of 2 ½" hose threads was started under the direction of the Underwriters' Field Representative who furnished the necessary tools to start the change. Up until that time, each fire company, had couplings on their hoses to suit their individual ideas and one company could not connect with another. This made them uniform so any company could help one another during conflagrations, thus NST threads.

June 22, 1931: The fire company fought its first fire resulting in loss of life when the home of Supervisor Frank Smith burned. He was overcome on the porch trying to make an escape.

February 6, 1934: Election was held for the purpose of purchasing $6,000.00 in bonds for a new fire station.

September 7, 1934: Equipment and furniture was moved from the old firehouse to the new firehouse.

February 7, 1936: Election was held at the request of the Board of Fire Commissioners to find a new Fire Chief. Herrick Osborne received nearly a unanimous vote.

September 8, 1936: A new Ford Garrison Pumper with a booster tank was purchased during the summer was delivered and tested by the members of the company.

December 23, 1939: Explosion of an oil heater caused extensive damage to an apartment over a garage, causing the death of Carson Hayes Jr. and injury to his father while he was making an attempt to rescue him with a ladder.

January 7, 1940: Chief Osborne resigned and Howard Hull was appointed by the Board of Fire Commissioners to fill out the term until the regular fire company election, which was held on April 5, 1940.

April 22, 1941: The fire company celebrated its 20th Anniversary with a roast turkey dinner at Ashe's Hotel. Hap Osborne served as Toastmaster. Twenty-year pins were presented to: Charles T. Brown, William Hastings, L.J. Love, Herrick Osborne and William Venum.

May 21, 1941: The equipment and water supply of the village inspected by Engineer R.D. Kelly of the Insurance Underwriters. The American LaFrance Pumper delivered 400 gallons per minute and the Ford Garrison Pumper delivered 200 gallons per minute. The hydrant at the bandstand delivered 400 gallon per minute at 75 lbs. pressure.

June 6, 1941: 1550 feet of 2 ½" hose and 250 feet of 1 ½" hose was tested and found to be in good condition.

July 12, 1941: The 4" cast iron main, feeding the reservoir was struck by lightning causing numerous breaks and cutting off the water supply to the entire Town.

July 13, 1941: Town forces started replacing 4,000 feet of broken pipe with 8" transite asbestos cement pipe.

July 16, 1941: The American LaFrance Pumper was placed at Big Brook at 2:35 p.m. and worked continuously for 267 hours until 7:00 p.m. on July 27 when the new 8" supply pipe began delivering water into the reservoir.
